Professional Summary

I am a motivated and passionate fresher with a strong interest in mobile and web application development. I have hands-on experience in building responsive and user-friendly applications using Flutter and Dart for mobile development, along with web technologies such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I also have basic knowledge of front-end frameworks like React for creating interactive user interfaces. I enjoy learning new technologies, solving problems, and writing clean and efficient code. I am eager to apply my skills in real-world projects, work in a collaborative environment, and continuously grow as a software developer.
